

I feel that XO communication falsly gave shareholders wrong information about there up and coming finacial for the company. With this information i then bought 700 shares which are worthless.